

Could you recognise the early signs of heart failure in your dog?

Common signs of heart failure to look out for:

Reluctance to exercise, tiring more easily

Coughing, especially at night

Fainting – often associated with exercise

Laboured or fast breathing

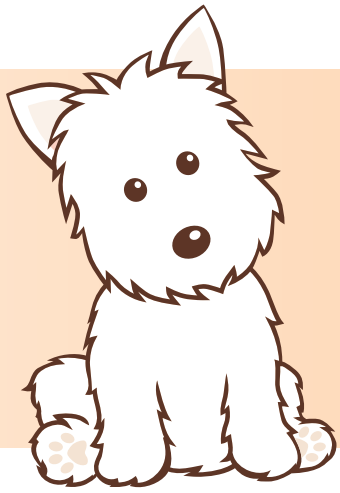

Poor appetite

Weight loss

Enlarged abdomen

Weakness

If you observe any of these signs, now is the time to talk to your Veterinarian.

I ♥ MY DOG